We of the staff present this yearbook with a feeling of pride, not in the achievement of our group, but in the cooperation of the school as a whole in making this important chronicle.

We have brought you a summary of the year's activities with the hope that you will cherish to the fullest extent those pleasant remembrances associated with this year's school work.

To all of those who contributed to this publication we wish to extend our sincerest appreciation.

SENIOR CLASS WILL

We, the Senior Class of 1948, realizing how few are our remaining days at P. M. H. S. and now possessing a very great deal of intelligence, rare personality, and talent in many lines, do hereby bestow our numerous valuable qualities, as well as our eccentricities, upon our worthy and devoted lower classmen in this, our Last Will and Testament, not wishing them to be scattered to the four winds . . .

Edsel Coleman, being extra generous, leaves his size to Donnie Gardner.

"Tot" Coleman wills his muscles to Eugene Barger.

Herman Decker leaves his ability to "get by" with murder in Basic Math to Frances Hamilton. Maynard Decker just leaves.

Bobby Dyson leaves his ability to sleep in class to Allen Harris.

William Hall leaves his ability to hop freight trains to Leslie Hamilton.

Manley Hamilton would like to leave about thirty pounds of his weight to Elwood Sandidge.

Carl Harris wills his ability to cut classes to some poor Freshman who is still fighting his way up.

Dan Henson leaves his subtle wit to Dinkey Copper.

Billy Lewis hopes he is leaving Jo Ann lonesome.

Norman Murdough leaves his Boston accent to Marie Harrison who is having so much trouble acquiring one.

James Smals leaves his "bike" to David Basham so he can get to school on time next year.

Calvin Snyder, besides leaving Betty Lee lonesome, bequeaths her ability to act in plays.

Leon Thacker wills his ability to work Math to Joan Scott who never seems to be able to get it.

Billy Wagner leaves his ability to learn to play the trombone in one month to Donald Pelter who has been learning to play the cornet for two years.

Evelyn Balser takes all her talent and ability with her for her husband-to-be.

Theona Bayne leaves her free period first thing in the morning to David Basham so he can get caught up on his sleep.

Edith Beard leaves her ability to sew to Jeanette Ogden who always gets tangled with hers.

Elizabeth Cash leaves her ability to keep up her studies and still see Rusty every night to Clara Cash and Dorothy Drumwright.

Roxie Coffey wills her ability to get on the honor roll one month out of eleven years to Jimmy Jefferies.

Betty Conner wills her ability to work Basic Math to Judy Spence.

Nancy Cunningham leaves her free period, the fifth period, to anyone who might want it.

Phyllis Ferguson leaves her first name to Phyllis Lackey as long as she promises to take care of it.

Margaret Ann Foster leaves her position in the "Girl's Quartet" to Mildred Coleman in hopes that she will get to go on as many trips as she did.

Laverne Glass wills her ability to get an engagement ring to Dallas Seay.

Jane Harris leaves school hoping to be able to keep Buddy Greene for herself.

Doris Huffman wills her long finger nails to Edith Ramsey.

Peggy Keiser leaves her figure to Jeanette Ogden.

Jeanne Nuckols leaves her ability to go somewhere every night and still get good grades to Jo Ann Cole.

Nancy Rice leaves her quiet sweetness to Margie Floyd and Dallas Seay.

Lorene Sandidge wills her curly hair to Barbara Coleman.

Lois Seay leaves her position as cheer-leader to Faye Lawhorne with the hope that she will put plenty of pep into the school yells next year.

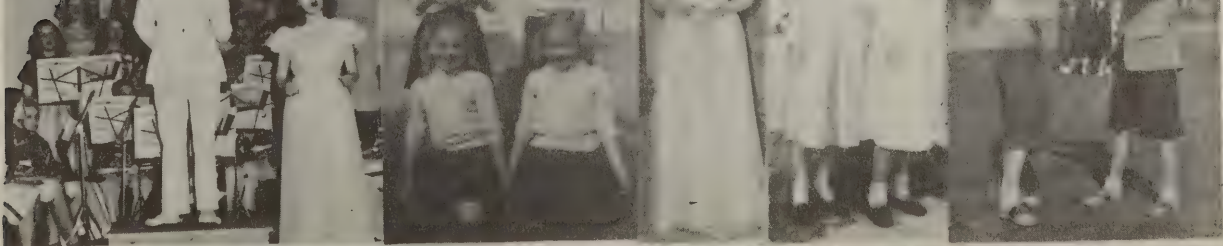

Maxine Smith wills her ability to get a boy friend with a car and motorcycle to those poor couples who have to walk.

Lillian Staton wills her big beautiful eyes to a swell girl, Hazel Moore.

Violet Thompson leaves her ability to get a husband from Natural Bridge to Helen Wright.

Catherine Viar wills her ability to come to a new school and get in the Beta Club the first year to any newcomer

Sue Wilson leaves her good grades in biology to Jackie Watts.

A grid of 42 black and white portrait photographs of students, arranged in 7 rows and 6 columns. The students are of various ethnicities and are dressed in formal attire typical of the mid-20th century. The portraits are arranged in a regular grid pattern, with each student's head and shoulders visible. The students exhibit a variety of hairstyles and clothing, reflecting the fashion of the era. The overall composition is a formal group portrait of the student body.

CHEERLEADERS

Lorene Sandidge, Helen Wright, Lois Seay, Jo Ann Cole, Phyllis Ferguson, Dallas Seay, Shirley Lewis, Evelyn Balser (chief cheerleader)

There is something about cheerleading that makes you so very proud of your school and your team. We trot to the local and out-of-town games to "pep up" the cheering for our "Fighting Blues".

We shall always remember the thrill of our very important football games (especially Lexington-P.M.H.S.). The school spirit has been splendid this year. To thank every one of you who cheered so well for the "Fighting Blues", we'd like to give fifteen Rah! Rah! Rah's!

The Beta Club is a non-secret, leadership service club. Its purpose is to encourage effort, to promote character, to stimulate achievement, to cultivate leadership qualities, to reward merit, and to encourage and assist students to continue their education after high school graduation.

Student membership is determined by the high school administration on the basis of good mentality and character, credit achievement, and commendable attitude.

All Beta members strive to live up to their motto, "Ducamus aliis serviendo", which means "Let us lead by serving others".

The Library Club consists of twenty-four members. The Club meets the second Monday evening of each month. Members of the Club devote study periods and one day each week after school to library work. They check out books and magazines and audio-visual materials. They repair, letter, shelve and shelve books. The members learn library methods by doing, and their love for books is fostered by handling them. The students, teachers, and librarians are deeply indebted to the members of the Library Club who serve so willingly and so well.

The band was organized in the fall of 1946, and has become one of the outstanding bands of this district. The band renders two yearly concerts, Fall and Spring. The band is constantly called upon for concerts and parades in other towns and has made several trips to the Veterans Hospital, as a unit and individual groups, as well as appearances before various civic clubs in the city and other places.

The band is the backer of all the Football games, and other school activities.

The band has appeared twice in our State Music Festivals, and took first prize at the Christmas Parade in Staunton.

Our band was represented for the first time at the "All State Band" at which Allen Harris was selected.
